Project Status

The partnership proudly announces the finalization of the design of a virtual programme for entrepreneurship for not only adult artists but also for people with low skills that are related with the cultural sector. Also, we are very close to finalize the development of a library repository which will present all relevant information, including methodologies and handbooks related to entrepreneurship and guidance of artists to launch their own incubator Design of a virtual incubator which will serve as the focal and central point among artists and cultural workers.

3rd Transnational Meeting – hybrid version

The project coordinators met in Bucharest, Romania hosted by the partner Centrul de Incubare Creativ Inovativ de Afaceri (CICIA) for two working days , from 20^h of January till 21st of January 2023. The meeting was an opportunity:

- To check the times and results status of medium-term project;
- To present the platform and its functionality that will host all the piloting sessions from CUBE project implementation
- To talk about the piloting sessions and their national implementations and to reach more than 150 artists to be involved in the virtual program of entrepreneurship in cultural sector.

The partners from Germany, Greece, Romania, Poland and Italy have been satisfied with the project results and return to their home countries with the information to optimize the project result.
